STATEMENT OF CONCERN

Amigos is an excellent example of a regional consortium dedicated to serving its partners and the library community at large. In a time of great change and uncertainty in the library community, Amigos has been nimble and proactive in providing services and support for their partners. Whether it has been affordable and socially distanced professional development or negotiating collective purchasing opportunities, Amigos has been a steadfast and dependable resource. Moving forward towards a new normal, I see Amigos, in cooperation with its Board of Directors and with input from its partners, continuing to lead the way with innovative, fiscally responsible, and strategic execution of initiatives in support of the diverse library community it serves.
